
All models are trained and scored on the same splits. R^2 is the squared Pearson correlation on held-out sequences; mutation effects are scored by Spearman ρ.